

Libraries Literature Live in the Park

Saturday 1 August
Brighton Pride, Preston Park

Brighton & Hove Libraries in partnership with Queer in Brighton and HAVE A WORD are hosting an afternoon of entertainment with writers and performers talking about and reading from their own work.

Sit back, chill out and listen to compere Clare Lydon, author of The Long Weekend & London's Calling, introduce a line-up that includes:

Catherine Hall, author of The Repercussions. Stevan Alcock, author of Blood Relatives. John Gordon, PJ Samuels, Donovan Morris, D'relle Khan and Edd Muruako poets, authors and contributors from Black and Gay in the UK. Carol Robson author of Words of Darkness and Light. Alison Childs in a duet with Rosie Wakeley performing from All The Nice Girls.

HAVE A WORD - Brighton's LGBT Literary Salon will take over from 5-6pm to present a variety of new and established performers from across the South East.

Tea & cakes will be available so come along to this cornucopia of literary heaven!

Have a Word in JubileeLibrary

This year Brighton & Hove Library Service is hosting HAVE A WORD. As part of its pre Pride celebrations!

---

Saturday 11 July, 10.30 -12.30pm

FREE writing workshop for older LGBT people led by Sue walker. Participants will have the opportunity to perform their work at 'HAVE A WORD' in Jubilee Library on Thursday 16th.

---

Thursday 16 July, 7.30-9.30pm

Line up includes Peter Daniels, Alice Purnell & Anny Knight, and Gerry Potter.

£5 tickets can be bought from Merlin & Ellis,
9 Manchester Street, Brighton

---

Your Library is

- LGBT & LGBT Family Friendly

And offers

- LGBT Books, films, and events
- LGBT reading groups
- LGBT 'We Are Family' magazine
- FREE internet & Wifi